Seymour Police Department Crime Prevention Tip Line Call (920) 833-0480

The Seymour Police Department has established a Crime Prevention "Tip Line". This confidential line has been developed for the community's convenience by providing a secure means to present the Seymour Police Department with information that will prevent on-going and potential crimes in our community.

Keep in mind if you have Crime Prevention Tips and the ability to share information as a witness by providing a statement you can simply call us at (920) 833-2366. Remember, you are provided protection under the Monfiles law to share confidential information without concern that your identity would be compromised.

"Thank you in advance for your crime stopping tip, the safety and security of our community is our priority! Chief Rick Buntrock".
